

JUSTICE SERVED CONFERENCE

Addictions & the Justice System: “Hope & Recovery”
May 16th, 2019

Concurrent Workshop Descriptions

12:45pm and 2:15pm

Session A: Amber Meiners

“Simcoe County Drug Treatment Court”

An Agent for the Public Prosecution Service of Canada; Amber currently prosecutes offences under the Controlled Drugs and Substances Act in Simcoe County. Amber will talk about the new Simcoe County Drug Treatment Court services and how a drug treatment court program is beneficial to individuals involved in the justice system.

Session B: Central North Correctional Centre (CNCC) Panel
(Alana Kehrer, Diane Marcellus, & Sarah Rusch)

“Supporting Clients with Addiction Issues in a Correctional Setting”

The Past, Present and Future: A review of the work three Addiction Counsellors do in a Provincial Correctional Centre

Session C: Linda MacArthur

“Mother of Recovering Addict”

A mother’s trials and tribulations navigating through her son’s drug addiction: the heartbreak and despair, the hope, recovery and healing. How her son’s drive to persevere, to become stronger and better, became hers.

End of Day: Karen Bell

“Rock and Roll: Power of the Arts”

In closing the day, we invite participants to participate in a short but very powerful activity: Rock and Roll! Something to take with you as you move forward in your journey personally or professionally.

